The Revolution

Preamble

The undersigned alliances have come together and realised that in the dangerous world of Ultima, we need to join forces to ensure the continued safety and freedom of our peoples.

Defence

The undersigned alliances have agreed to come to the aid of any member within 'The Revolution' Failure to do so without just reason will be punished by expulsion from 'The Revolution', and a vote will be taken as to further action.

Aggression

The Revolution must decide as a whole whether to engage in an aggressive war against another alliance. If a majority vote is passed by the representatives of the undersigned alliances, then all alliances of 'The Revolution' must engage in said war. The representative's vote must be a reflection of the members of the individual alliances

Accepting surrenders and surrendering will also be on the basis of a vote.

Entry and Exit

Exiting can be undertaken by any alliance for any given reason, although they must give one weeks notice, and abide by the conditions of this treaty until such a time.

Entry into 'The Revolution' will be decided by a general vote.

Signed

Notes: This treaty is open to any suggestions. The name also is only preliminary – if you have any suggestions please contact me on LoU - DrRodders